

You can also explore Judith's childhood and her experiences of escaping Nazi Germany and how it felt to be a refugee in Switzerland and France before finally settling in London. Judith writes about these experiences through three semi-autobiographical novels for older children in her Out of the Hitler Time trilogy.

Judith

Don't miss this opportunity to gain a unique insight into Judith's life and work and discover how Judith developed into the artist and storyteller who we know today.

Pink Rabbit

Tiger, Mog and Pink Rabbit: A Judith Kerr Retrospective is developed in association with Harper Collins Children's Books, Northern Rock. The exhibition was first on display at Seven Stories, National Centre for Children's Books. sevenstories.org.uk

Visitor information

Become a Friend from just £25 and get in for FREE!

Opening hours
Daily 10am–5pm
(Fridays 10am–2pm)
Check website for full details of opening hours
jewishmuseum.org.uk/JudithKerr

Admission
Adults £7.50*
Concession £6.50*
Children (5–16) £3.50
Family ticket £18 (two adults and two children)
Children under 5 and Museum Friends Free
Admission is free to the Welcome Gallery, shop and café.
The Jewish Museum is fully accessible to wheelchair users.
* Prices include voluntary donation for Gift Aid purposes

Getting here
Jewish Museum London
Raymond Burton House
129–131 Albert Street
London NW1 7NB
3 minutes walk from
Camden Town Underground

Contact us
admin@jewishmuseum.org.uk
020 7284 7384

Shop
Take the Tiger home with our range of exhibition merchandise including books, toys, gifts. Plus, our Yumchaa custom-blend brew will be just your cup of tea.

Eat
Make time for tea in our Museum Café and enjoy a range of delicious drinks, fresh sandwiches, and sweet treats.

Printed on Horizon Offset 190gsm – a material made to the highest environmental standards at one of Europe's leading board manufacturers who are ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and FSC® certified.

JEWISH MUSEUM LONDON

29 June —
14 October
2015

Tiger, Mog and Pink Rabbit: A Judith Kerr Retrospective

an exhibition from seven stories

Tiger, Mog and Pink Rabbit: A Judith Kerr Retrospective

Have tea with a life-size Tiger, curl up in Mog's basket and discover the childhood drawings of a girl escaping Hitler's Germany. This exhibition invites families to enjoy 80 years of original artwork and illustrations by Judith Kerr, one of Britain's best loved authors.

Judith Kerr's first picture book, The Tiger Who Came to Tea, began life as a bedtime story for her own children and became a classic soon after its publication in 1968. This exhibition also features the lovable Mog series, and you can discover how Judith took inspiration from her family and real life cat.

A Summer of Stories

Discover more about the exhibition with our programme of events and activities for all the family to enjoy

Daily

All daily activities free with museum admission

Storytelling, 10.30am

Curl up and listen to classic children's stories. Recommended for under 8s.

Craft Activities, all day

All ages.

Explorer Backpacks, all day

Recommended for 5–8s.

Family Trail, all day

Recommended for 8+.

Judith Kerr Talks

My Life and Work

Sunday 26 July, 2–3pm

Judith Kerr talks about her life and work in this conversation with Nicolette Jones of The Sunday Times. This event is aimed particularly at children.

£15 per adult, children free with museum entry

My Stories

Thursday 10 September, 6.30–7.30pm

(including Q&A)

Hear Judith Kerr share the real-life stories behind her words and pictures in conversation with Claire Armistead of the Guardian.

Ages 9+, £15 per adult, children free with museum entry

Author Events

In partnership with Harper Collins

Rob Biddulph Workshops

Hop along and let your imagination run wild at these workshops with Rob Biddulph, prize-winning author of Blown Away and Art Director of the Observer Magazine.

Thursday 6 August

1–2.30pm (ages 4+)

3–4.30pm (ages 7+)

£10 per child, adults free with museum entry

Find out more and check out the full programme of events at jewishmuseum.org.uk/whats-on

Illustration Workshops

In partnership with Pop Up Projects

Feline creative? Get your paws messy in these workshops led by award-winning authors and illustrators.

All workshops £10 per child, adults free with museum entry

Sunday 26 July, 11am–1pm (ages 5+)

With Karen George, illustrator of Julia Donaldson's Freddie and the Fairy.

Saturday 1 August, 11am–1pm (for under 10s)

Led by Lonely Planet Kids Illustrator, Kremena Dimitrova.

Wednesday 5 August, 11am–12.30pm (all ages)

Create brilliant cat comics with artist Jim Medway.

Thursday 6 August, 11am–12.30pm (all ages)

With Jane Ray, illustrator of The Story of Creation and Can You Catch a Mermaid? and BSL interpreter.

Wednesday 19 August, 11am–12.30pm (ages 7+)

Join Jim Smith, creator of the Barry Loser series, for drawing, burps and belly laughs.

Wednesday 19 August, 2–3.30pm (ages 6+)

Meet Eleanor Taylor, illustrator of David Almond's latest book Half a Creature from the Sea.

Thursday 20 August, 11am–12.30pm (ages 5+)

Have fun with Guy Parker Rees, illustrator of the international bestseller Giraffes Can't Dance.

Sunday 11 October

Celebrate The Big Draw with a day of workshops from comic book artists and illustrators.

Events for Big Kids

Keeping Kosher and the Taboo of Pig

Wednesday 15 July, 3pm

After the Tiger ate all the food, the family went out for sausages and ice cream; but eating milk after meat is forbidden in a Kosher diet. This Gefitlefest session with renowned educator Maureen Kendler has it all: Bible history, cannibalism, and recipes. £10, includes museum entry

Books at Lunchtime

Thursday 23 July, 20 August, 10 September, 8 October, 1–2pm

Spend your lunchtime with a Waterstones Camden bookseller who will share what's new, what's hot, and read extracts from recommended books and bestsellers. Standard admission to museum galleries apply

How to Write a Picture Book

Wednesday 5 August, 10.30am–4.30pm

Learn how to write your own picture book in this City Lit / Jewish Museum course that takes its inspiration from Judith Kerr's much loved books, taught by children's author Penny Kendal. £35

Film Screening of BBC's Imagine Hitler, the Tiger and Me

Every Saturday and Sunday, 12–1pm

Judith re-visits Berlin with Alan Yentob and takes tea in the London kitchen to which that tiger came.

Free with museum entry